

pre-contribution submission guidelines

The pre-contribution submission is the first step of the publishing process. This pre-contribution will be reviewed internally. We will get back to you to inform you of whether your project has been accepted and with information about the next steps of the publishing process.

information to provide:

- title (with subtitle, when necessary)
- authors / Project team (with affiliated institutions / framework, if applicable)
- a main contact for the contribution
- authors of the pre-contribution submission (with institutional attachment / framework, if applicable and if different from those previously mentioned)
- one or a few pictures with captions and credits (for your information, images are displayed on the website in a 700x460 ratio, 956x341, or 1920x1080 72dpi)
- a short text presenting the project with a clear research focus, its multidisciplinary methodology and its visual approach to publishing (2,000 characters maximum)
- a list of keywords (around 10)
- a preselected .able layout: scroll.able, pan.able, zoom.able, story.able, video.able (if possible)
- acceptance of the relevant authorizations for the publication
- you can add useful resources, files or appendix if it is needed
